Democratic Documents—T. J. D. Fuller Franking the Speech of Toombs the Renegade—Disunion Whig.

MR. EDITOR:—There came to the Post Office in this town a few days since, under the office frank of Mr. Fuller, a copy of the speech of Toombs at Georgia, delivered in the Tremont Temple, Boston, on the 25th of January, 1856. How has, I presume, that too small for the Democratic mill to the name of Freedom? As they were not directed to individuals, and as the franking privilege of Democracy, was abolished with fees and plundering, distributing among the people the precious sayings of a democratic statesman. And now is the mission which the unstained Democracy has chosen, has it?

It has sent me Mr. Toombs's speech.

Under the first head [illegible] to show that Congress has no power to [illegible] or in any manner to impede the progress of Slavery in the Territories; PROTECT AND MAINTAIN it in the Territories, and WHERE EVER ITS FLAG FLOATS AND ITS JURISDICTION IS PARAMOUNT!!!!

This is the letter me to work the Charles [illegible] Mercury upon Mr. Buchanan's subscription. [illegible]

Under the second head he maintains that slavery is CREATED TO PROMOTE THE HIGHEST, [illegible] AND GREATEST HAPPINESS OF BOTH RACES." At which is suddenly explode.

Now listen, Mr. Toombs holds, that if the Federal Government refuses to do all that he has indicated under the first head, that will be sufficient cause for the secession of the Union.

On the 13th of December, 1849, the same Mr. Toombs, being a member of the House of Representatives, in a speech delivered in his place, said:

"I do not, think, it right to move before the House and the country in the [illegible] of preserving good, that by your legislation you seek to drive us from the Territories of California and New Mexico, purchased by the common blood and treasure of the whole people, and to exclude slavery (a thing [illegible] already existing in it) from a territory [illegible] a climate and condition by which half the States of this Confederacy, I AM FOR DISUNION. And if my physical courage be equal to the assistance of my conscientious [illegible] and duty, I WILL DEVOTE ALL I AM AND ALL I HAVE ON EARTH TO HIS CONSUMMATION."

He was followed in the same strain by Stephens of Ga., Rhett of Alabama, and Colcock of S. C.

During the delivery of Toombs's speech he was vehemently applauded by simultaneously of thirty Southern members, who had gathered around him.

Such are the sentiments which the Representatives from the Sixth District of Maine is disseminating among the people of this State.

Hitherto the leaders of the so-called Democratic party, have professed to the people, that they were not a party of slavery, or its extension. But now all disguise is thrown off. They boldly ADMIT AND CIRCULATE THE DOCTRINES OF SOUTHERN FANATICS AND DISUNIONISTS.

Now then tell honest men that their former professions of hatred to slavery and opposition to its extension are all a sham. Now they tell us that Congress, that the freemen of the North, are bound, to protect and maintain slavery in the States, on every acre where the national flag floats, and on every foot of territory where the national jurisdiction is paramount. Say, they are now prepared to assert that Slavery, denounced by Wm. Pinkney as the curse of the earth and the hate of heaven," is after all "THE BEST CONDITION FOR THE HIGHEST AND BEST HAPPINESS OF BOTH RACES."

Let honest Democrats consider well upon this [illegible] to extend the [illegible] of slavery, and then determine whether they will support it at the polls.

J. H. P.

Hampden, Me., July 28, 1856.

A Large Discount.

The Bangor Journal has been forced to acknowledge substantially that its recent statement relative to the "retrenching" of the United States Sabbath School scholars, upon the political sentiments, was entirely untrue. The story seems to have been made out of whole cloth. The editor now understands (from his informant," that instead of saying that the cut had been established upon the Presidential question "last Sabbath day (or it might have been the Sabbath previous)," he referred to something that he seems to have taken place two years when Mr. Morris was a candidate for Governor, and what, if it is remembered, is to be viewed, one of the teachers asked the bright little boy, who his father was going to vote for.

And there the only matter out of which the Journal manufactured the wholesale and malicious charge that "hundreds of the United States Sabbath School were expelled up in their Presidential preferences last Sabbath!"

In whining, hypocritical claim to "fairness" in having made the correction is laughable indeed. How soon would any correction have appeared in the Journal, had it not been driven to the wall, to stave publicly brobled as a falsehood, and a subscription or subscription made necessary? The occupation is useful, as showing from what flimsy materials the "journals in the habit of manufacturing" contemptible [illegible]

Only one Issue at the South.

At a meeting held at Point Isabel, Texas, on the 27th of June the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That humanity ought to be one of our watchwords. Whatever have heretofore been the opinions of Southern men or divisions in Southern politics, the time has come when there ought to be no divisions in the South—when we should stand shoulder to shoulder, to drive back those blood-thirsty demagogues, who even now are reeking the blood of innocent men on the plains of Kansas."

In other words, when the whole South ought to unite in forcing slavery into Kansas, and driving out free emigrants.

While the feeling and sentiment of the people in the Northern States, is so strongly in favor of saving all political differences there in favor of the ruling idea of extension of slavery, there are certain politicians in the North, who stand aloof from the same pressing considerations, and insist upon a party—nearly all of the minorities remaining, brought it was one of the honest average of the [illegible]

At Oldtown, on Wednesday evening, there were from 5 to 6 hundred [illegible] to an attempt and unwarranted audience.

Dr. Hannibal's CELEBRATED Poem, entitled "The Pirate's Hope," was recited in an able manner to a large and delighted audience at City Hall, on Wednesday evening. This poem is universally spoken of as a production of the very highest literary merit—abounding in by the whole of the finest American poets. It glows with all the fervor of a true and noble patriotism and abounds in stirring pathos, wit and sarcasm. It electrified an audience with the air of freedom.

There has been a very strong request indeed that the Poem repeated in this city, and we hope Dr. Hamlin will consent to favor us once more.

SALE OF THE YORK & CUMBERLAND R. R.—On Tuesday last, at the right, title and interest acquired by Myers the contractor, to the above road, by virtue of the mortgage deed to him by the Directors, was sold at auction. The bid in was upon one of $50,000, and the property was finally struck off to Francis O. J. Smith for $ 150,000. The Advertiser says the purchase was made by Mr. Smith for the Androscoggin & New York ring.

MR. MORRILL AT OLDTOWN.—Hon. Lot M. Morrill will address the people of Oldtown and vicinity, upon the political topics of the day, at 8 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. Those who may desire to go from this city, may obtain tickets up and back, for 25 cents. Leaving Bangor at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M. Returning leave Oldtown at 7 1-2 P. Terrible Conflagration in Boston!

Nine persons killed—five wounded and ten missing. Eighty families [illegible] $800,000. Forty of Property Destroyed!

Yesterday afternoon one city was visited with a very disastrous conflagration, involving the greatest destruction of human life that we remember in its annals.

A few minutes before three o'clock a female attendant in the grocery and liquor store of Cornelius Dehessy, No. 454 North street, was turning off some camphene for a customer who was lighting a cigar. The vapor of the camphene communicated with the lighted cigar and the whole of the fluid was ignited. The room was instantly filled with flame, and the person present narrowly escaped severe burning. An alarm of fire was immediately sounded, and the fire department was quickly on the ground. Before any of the engines arrived, however, the store and its contents—the contents being principally inflammable liquids—were thoroughly on fire. The adjoining apartments and the rooms above were soon in a blaze, and the occupants of the building had begun to remove their furniture.

With frightful rapidity the fire spread from room to room, and to the neighboring buildings. A scene of the wildest confusion was now presented. Tables, chairs and crockery were hurled indiscriminately from the windows; women and children put their heads out of the windows screaming for help; persons were running in every direction, and the fire was raging with unchecked rapidity.

The building in which the fire originated—Jefferson Block—was a low, dry brick building, and was occupied by some forty Irish families. These families were all driven into the street without being able to save anything of their personal property except the clothes on their backs. Several women, to save themselves from the flames which hemmed them in on all sides, jumped from the windows into the street. One woman was instantly killed by the concussion, and another was injured so that she subsequently died. Quite a number, however, escaped death. One woman jumped from the third story, struck the pavement with her feet, and without stopping to take any questions, ran off as fast as she could. Another woman got out of the fourth story and dropped from from the window sill next to the window sill of the third story, which she grasped with her hands—then dropped to the second story, and finally to the pavement. She was unhurt.

The high brick building adjoining the Jefferson Block, on the corner of North and Clark streets was partly burned, the walls and a portion of the flooring only being left.

The stable of John Seaver, No. 10 Clark st., was entirely destroyed. Three houses in the rear on Everett st. occupied by Mr. Seaver were also burned down.

Four frame tenements in the rear of Jefferson Block owned by Cornelius Doherty, were completely destroyed. The three-story wooden building, No. 316, North street, belonging to the Barber estate, and occupied as a grocery store by P. Sullivan, was almost entirely burnt down.

About four o'clock some firemen had put up a ladder against the house mentioned above as belonging to the Barber estate, when the chimney fell prostrating the ladder and all who were upon it. The main portion of the chimney fell upon Charles Wm. Warren, a member of Franklin Hook and Ladder Co. No. 2, breaking his skull, hip also, and one left leg. He died instantly. N. Wells Harding, Jr., a volunteer of Boylston Engine Co. No. 11, was badly bruised about the breast and legs. Philip Brickett and John W. Regan, also members of the Boylston Company, were slightly injured.

Mrs. Mary Collins jumped from the fourth story of Jefferson Block into the street, and was instantly killed. Nearly every bone in her body was broken. She was 64 years old, and leaves a number of children in the care of her husband, Daniel Collins.

Mrs. Margaret Sweeny jumped out of a third story window and broke her right arm and one leg. She was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital.

A woman named Margaret Donovan was seen in an unexcited state in one of the upper rooms shortly before the fire and apartment is supposed that her body was one of those subsequently found among the ruins.

About half past four o'clock, the progress of the fire being stayed, search was begun among the ruins for the bodies of those who were perishing and who might not have had time to escape from the burning building before the walls fell. The first body found was apparently that of a boy of twelve or fourteen years of age. The corpse was horribly mangled and charred so as not to retain any semblance. The body was found near the corner of the building nearest to Hanover street, and about two feet from the wall. The firemen continued to search in this same place, and in the course of an hour four entire bodies were exhumed,—all burned to a crisp, and horribly mangled. Two of these bodies appeared to be those of women, and one that of a young boy. The fourth and last remnant of a human form and no one could be found as to its age or sex.—Boston Daily Advertiser of Wednesday.

BOLTON OR GARRISON.—We take from California papers the following items, relative to this celebrated dense-ratic politician, who was set up as a bright and shining light of the party only a few years ago:

HON. JOHN BOLTON.—We were shown a letter yesterday from a gentleman who was a passenger to New York with Ex-Governor Bigler, in which it is stated that Bigler said, upon several occasions, that he had made California, he thought for good, and had saw but little chance of making any thing there. He remarked that he landed in Sacramento without a dollar, and left it worth about one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, which he thought was coming well for a poor man. It will be remembered that Mr. Bigler always pleaded poverty, when in California, but he now begins a little of his wealth.—California American.

We think it is altogether probable that John Bigler will never return to California. We think the future of this State will not furnish such a harvest for political hacks as the past has; and the schemes of plunder, and the schemes of fraud, in which John Bigler has been during the past few years a prominent mover, have been as well exposed of late, that we do not think a read one in California would be at all agreeable to him.—San Francisco.

FIRE.—Last Monday P. M., the stable of Mr. G. D. Parshley, in Sangerville village, was struck by lightning, setting it on fire and consuming the same, together with seven tons of hay, 100 bushels of oats, and considerable quantity of other grain, with a valuable sorrel. The dwelling house and shed connected with the same, were also burnt, together with a portion of the furniture, clothing, &c. By great exertions the fire was kept from spreading. Mr. P.'s entire loss is estimated at $ 600—insured in the Finetaque Mutual Company for $375.

About the same time, a school house some 50 rods distant was struck, a stirring and injuring it considerably, and nonsetting it on fire.—Journal.

We learn by the Boston papers that a terrible conflagration of two hours duration, took place at Hyannis, Cape Cod, on Thursday afternoon last. In No. 6, more than three fourths of East Yarmouth, [illegible] commencing raging at 2 P. M., and [illegible] at three o'clock, and [illegible] that time had consumed [illegible] dwelling houses, [illegible] Capt. [illegible] Capt. [illegible] Capt.

Chickering & Sons

PIANOS!

WE still the only authorized agents here in this city, or any where in our vicinity, for the above firm, notwithstanding neighboring unscrupulous parties in their advertisements in another part of this paper, and elsewhere, would insinuate to the contrary. We also assure the public that they were the only ones who received a premium at the late Fair in this city, for the best Piano, in fact all the premiums awarded to Pianos, were awarded to Chickering's, with the exception of one, which was awarded to Hallett, Davis & Co., for the best Piano, manufactured in this city, and we are willing to leave it to the public to decide whether we are entitled to the credit we claim, or not.

We also assure the public that we have greatly reduced our prices, and that Mrs. Grover and Mr. Grover (who by the way is an experienced hand in the finishing of pianos) will be employed in Mr. G's establishment constantly, the coming year, and desire, from the fact of the experience they have had of several years before.

We are now on hand a good assortment of Chickering & Sons Pianos; also, a few of Brown & Allen's, which the public are invited to examine and compare.

Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory,

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber has been very successful in completing many contracts for Door Frames, Doors, Window Frames and Sashes, and Blinds for good, working houses and other buildings to be erected in this city, the coming season. He has excellent workmen in his employ, and has superior stock, so that he can always supply to those wishing to build the best articles of Door Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions and of superior quality, either for a whole building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having these articles made separately, so that the carpenters have only to put them in their places in the structure.

This business has now become a well established one, and a small margin is left in knowing before hand the cost of building bought, while the work done by a thoroughly efficient mechanic is always to be relied upon.

Any one interested can examine specimens of the work at the factory, near the Bass Piano, or by the owner, H. P. Dunbar, on Exchange st., and whether one or any articles may be obtained or any quantities covered.

Mr. Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds, ready painted, and will hang them at the shortest notice.

By long experience, and by detailed personal manner, the subscriber is now enabled to sell his customers both in quality and price, and so well organized, that he knows that no man should now make a building, church, and store and not get his materials.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

ALL PERSONS who desire to obtain full and reliable information respecting SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES—their peculiar capabilities, advantages, late improvements, method of working, means of procuring them, and all other particulars—can obtain by applying at or office,

No. 323 Broadway, New York,

by letter or in person, for

I. M. SINGER & CO'S GAZETTE,

This paper is devoted entirely to the Sewing Machine interest. Copies will be supplied gratis to all interested.

N. B.—The unparalleled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several fraudulent imitations of them, besides numerous infringements of our patents—of which eleven decisions, both for the infringement of our patents, have recently been decided in our favor in the U. S. Circuit Courts in New York and New Jersey. In these suits the great principle of which is used in all Sewing Machines—has been fully established. The Wheeler & Wilson and Grover & Baker Sewing Machines are the alone such infringements of the latest patents owned by us. We have since obtained them in several of the U. S. Courts, which will soon be tried. We hereby caution the public not to buy any infringing Machines, as they can be compelled by law to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.

General Agents wanted to make sales of our improved jewelry machines. To persons properly qualified for the same, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasurable employment is offered.

New and improved machines exchanged on liberal terms for old machines of every description.
